YEARLY NO-CHARGE SPEAKER PROGRAM

The "No-Charge" speaker program is one of the most valuable benefits offered by NAEPC. The individuals noted below have agreed to speak (within noted guidelines)… WITH THEIR HONORARIUM WAIVED! Each speaker will present an educational topic, speak to the benefits of being a member of NAEPC, and current NAEPC board members may also be available to attend a board meeting to discuss the benefits of NAEPC affiliation in more detail. All are either past presidents, current board members, or past board members of NAEPC. COUNCILS ARE PERMITTED TO USE ONE WEBINAR IN PLACE OF AN IN-PERSON SPEAKER, SEE PAGE 7 FOR DETAILS. Councils must submit their enrollment/registration form to NAEPC rather than contacting speakers directly.

Please note that programs are not available during the week prior to and of the Annual NAEPC Advanced Estate Planning Strategies Conference held each November, and may be limited near the Regional Leadership Day programs, the time leading up to the conference, and during peak professional seasons.

PLEASE NOTE

Details about additional programming resources offered by NAEPC can be found at http://www.naepc.org/affiliated-councils/speakers-bureau.

Topics: SECURE ACT Planning using Testamentary Charitable Remainder Trusts: From Concept to Completion; Direction Memo: The Importance of a Letter of Instructions in Modern Estate Planning; Top Three Ways to use Life Insurance in Charitable Planning; Ten Evidence-Based Planned Giving Concepts for Charitable Baby Boomers

Paul Caspersen brings complex financial thinking to the charitable planning field. As a Certified Financial Planner, Paul has 25 years of financial, estate, and charitable planning experience. Between 2013-2023, he served as Assistant Vice President and Sr. Philanthropic Advisor at the University of Florida, where his Gift Planning team closed $1.25 billion (of the Campaigns $4 billion total) in deferred gifts and outright gifts of complex assets. Prior to his position at the University of Florida, he led the Gift Planning program at Iowa State University. Before specializing in planned giving, Paul spent a decade working in financial services.

Paul is the founder of Planned Giving Interactive (PGI), a charitable planning software & consulting organization. PGI provides charities with practical tools to research complex gifts and an industry-leading, extensive suite of document drafting software to automate donor compliance-related documents, as well as consulting services.

Topics: Charitable Remainder Trusts; Behavioral Finance; Social Security; and Protecting Yourself from Identity Theft; Diversity in Estate Planning; 529 Planning: Transferring Millions of Dollars to Your Family; Socially Responsible Investing: Diversity, Inclusion, & Other Issues

We all need accurate information and dependable relationships. That's true no matter what we're looking for, and it's especially true when it comes to financial planning. Kit's clients trust her for two main reasons: They know she cares and they value her experience. This personal-professional combination gives her clients more confidence. We all seek out experts for important parts of our life. It's about more than just money. Her expertise is about conditioning your financial life for strength, health and endurance. Kit joined Morgan Stanley as a Financial Advisor in Pasadena, CA in 2013. Prior to joining Morgan Stanley, she was with Merrill Lynch Wealth Management for nearly nine years.

On her way to becoming a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, Kit served a community foundation in Southern California as its Director of Gift Planning. She worked with donors and local charitable organizations to gain philanthropic assets that would provide a legacy of financial resources. Today, she uses her financial-planning proficiency to serve as a volunteer, board member, and consultant to guide families and charities toward more secure financial futures.

Kit raised three children, all now grown and leading fulfilling lives in different parts of the United States. She loves traveling to visit family, including trips to Detroit, her original hometown. She lives in Los Angeles and travels throughout Southern California and the U.S. to support clients as well as the community groups she works with. Her volunteer work continues as a board member for the NAEPC and St. Barnabas Senior Services. Kit is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, Carlson School of Management, earned the Certified Specialist in Planned Giving® from California State University Long Beach, American Institute of Philanthropy in 2001, and became a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ and Accredited Estate Planner® designee in 2013.

· How the Program Works

- One presentation or webinar per council is available (September 2021 – August 2022)
- Councils must adhere to the timing restrictions provided by the speaker.
- Specific presentation dates are accepted at the time of application, but are not guaranteed. NAEPC will work with speaker to gauge his/her/their availability.
- For live presentations, Council is responsible for speaker's travel and lodging expenses. These expenses may include, but are not limited to: transportation to and from the airport at the speaker's original location or airport parking charges; airfare and baggage charges; overnight accommodations to accommodate flight schedules and speaker preference (generally one or two nights); meals; and taxi, ride-share service, or rental car in the city of the council event.
- All expenses to produce the meeting (print, postage, food, audio-visual, continuing education, virtual delivery platform, etc.) are the sole responsibility of the Council. Speaker will not be responsible for printing or shipping costs to prepare outlines, presentations, etc.
- Council must allow speaker minimal time to offer a brief description of the programs and services available to members of the NAEPC and/or to distribute information.
- Council is welcome to invite speakers who are currently on the NAEPC board to attend a board meeting.
- Once awarded, Council agrees to notify the speaker and NAEPC immediately if plans change and the program will not be offered.
- Once awarded, it is the responsibility of the Council to handle all arrangements with the speaker / speaker's representative.
- All presentations will be awarded on a first come, first served basis.

After submitting the final page of this packet via email to eleanor@naepc.org, a representative from the NAEPC will email the council contact with availability for the speaker. If the speaker is available, the council will be supplied and email confirmation that includes contact information for the chosen presenter. The council should then reach out to the speaker to confirm date and time arrangements within two weeks of receipt, or sooner if indicated in the confirmation. Please call Eleanor M. Spuhler at the NAEPC office with any questions.
